Matters Matrimonial.

"Father, where is our boy to-night—

He so bold and gay?

The twilight shadows are falling now,

Why does he stay away?

Janie is handsome, and manly, too,

And he will be good and great;

But, father, why is our darling boy

A staying away so late?

"Our noble boy is a child no more,

He has grown to man's estate;

He has gone a courting Alice Gray,

The reason he stays so late;

For her raven hair and eyes so black

Have stolen his heart away.

And he goes in the holy twilight hour

A wooing sweet Alice Gray.

"Why does the maiden lure him away,

Now we are growing so old?

And we have shouldered him all his life,

Our love has never grown cold;

The maid can never love him as we

Have loved him all his years.

Who have led him along the path of life,

Sharing his smiles and tears.

"But, wife, remember long years ago,

When I was young and gay,

And you a maiden so fair and sweet,

That you stole my heart away.

I had a father old and gray,

And a mother kind and true,

Who loved me kindly all my life—

But my heart went out with you."

A blush crept over her withered cheek,

Her eyes shone clear and mild,

No longer she hid the lovely maid,

For winning away her child.

The thought of long ago, when she,

Stood close to her lover's side

In the little church, and the man of God

Made her a happy bride.

Ead Policy to Pay Rent.

We do not mean if you agree to it;

but bad policy to agree to do it.

Any man who is able to pay rent can build a house. This will strike you as a bold proposition and hard to believe, but let us reason together.

It is hardly our interest to discourage renting houses, but as this is Sunday,

we will waive interest and go for principle.

First, you say you have no lot.

Lease one, then, or buy on long time.

You have no lumber or materials.

you are paying one or two hundred dollars rent. When you pay it, it is gone, and at the end of two or three years you have paid out enough to build a house, but are still a renter.

All you need to do is to anticipate these payments—say for a year—borrow out of bank or otherwise, and give your rising building as security for enough to buy the lumber—put up a frame for three or four rooms, live in it till fall without plastering—plaster one room in the fall, and in-sick of it, and in five years or less you will be courted by the same men. The good will of such men is purchased at too dear a price. It is not worth having.

You are a coward. You are a toady. You are willing to sell out your home and your independence for such weak and unmanly sentimentalism. Dare to follow your own line of policy if it is honest and for your interest to do so, and do not allow a weak and snobbish false pride to consign you to hard labor for life as the tenant and vassal of your landlord.

By following this advice, the thousands of dollars you will give away for rent in ten years and have nothing to show for, will give you a home of comfort and elegance with a wife and family and all the influence of our most respected citizens. This is the way, walk ye in it. It leads to independence, respectability and honor.

How the Rump Congress Rewards Soldiers.—Col. J. M. Neibling, of Findley, Ohio, who lost an arm at the battle of Kennesaw Mountain, in the last session of the Rump Congress, was nominated by the President for Postmaster at Findley, and was summarily rejected by that body. Col. Neibling was one of the bravest and truest soldiers of the late war, and no one dare say otherwise, but because he is still in favor of the Union, and consequently opposed to the policy of the Jacobin Congress, he is thus repudiated. While fighting for the Union, Col. Neibling has been made a cripple for life, and now he is rewarded for his patriotism in this manner by the Radical Congress. While this body are rejecting one-armed and one-legged soldiers for positions, they are appointing negroes to similar positions in other parts of the country.—This is the last debt of gratitude the negro suffragites are paying to the soldiers of the Republic.—Berlin, O. Dem.

The way to do it.—The two following pictures are not overdrawn, but true to the letter and we present them for the benefit of the citizens of our own town, as well as all others interested. "Look on this picture and on this," and choose ye between them:

How to Kill a Town.—Run every one off with unreasonable charges for lots, and Broadway, New York, rents. Stick to your pockets, and discourage every enterprise in every way if you do not see a dollar in it for your greedy stockings. Loaf about the street corners, content to curse bad fortune and sponge somebody for a drink of mean whisky.

How to Build a Town.—Encourage every one who is worthy and active in spirit, to purchase and improve property. Go to work, stimulating enterprises that are legitimate, by uniting your industry, influence and capital in the common "pot." Cultivate public spirit, and talk less than you work. Mean what you say, and demonstrate your sincerity by a strict observance of punctuality, liberality and industry.

A Case Deserving Consideration.—At Dry Tortugas to-day there is one suffering for the acts of many. It is true he is guilty (?) equally with the rest, but the others are all free, and the question is, is it right on the part of the United States Government to show mercy to fifty and justice (?) to but one? George St. Leger Greenleaf an Englishman by birth, is the only victim of all concerned in the Chicago Camp Douglas conspiracy. If he has any friends at home they have abandoned him. Has he any here? If so, let us meet some here—let us who were with, who know the services he did, what valor he displayed—let us in some way, either by employing counsel, or by petition, or both in one, place his case before the eyes of President Johnson, and see if we can not get his pardon. The government certainly does not hold him more guilty than the others. He is a prisoner to-day because he is a stranger in a strange land—because the cause for which he so nobly fought, has so utterly died out in our hearts that we have forgotten those who loved it best.

Kentuckians fought with him—Kentuckians should sue for him. Will they do it?

CONFEDERATE SOLDIER.

A little girl who had received a paternal injunction to remember what the minister said, returned from church delighted. "I remember something," she said. "All very glad of it," replied the father, "what did he say?" "He said, a collection will be taken up now."

A Milwaukee Mystery—A What-is-it.

We have just learned the particulars of a most singular affair, which is as yet a mystery. It seems that for some months past the farmers in the vicinity of Oak Creek, in this county, have been troubled with what they supposed to be minks or foxes, that have entered their hen-coops and often almost entirely stripped their hen-roosts. All precautions to keep out the depredators have proved futile, doors that were latched being opened with apparent ease and the hens taken from their roosts. Occasionally lambs would disappear, and traces of their having been destroyed were afterwards found. The supposition that the animals and fowls were stolen was untenable, as the evidence that they had been devoured by some carnivorous animal was too strong.

One person who had been particularly aggrieved by the disappearance of his property resolved to watch, and if possible discover his enemy and put him out of existence. Armed with his rifle, he stationed himself one night this week near his henyard and awaited developments. About 11 o'clock he heard a stealthy step approaching, and peering through the darkness, discovered an object. It crept cautiously to the henry, now walking on all fours, and again standing erect as a man. The watcher was at a loss to distinguish what the animal or being could be, but resolving to penetrate the mystery, took aim and fired. A piercing shriek arose, as of a boy twelve years of age in terrible pain, and the object bounded off on all fours, uttering meanwhile a plaintive moan or wail, which could proceed from no other animal but a human being. It made its way for the adjacent woods and was soon lost to both sound and sight. The gentleman returned to his house and related what had occurred, fully convinced that he had wounded a human being who had attempted to rob his hen roost.

The next day, with his rifle on his shoulder, he sallied out into the woods in the direction the object had taken. He traced it for some distance by pools of blood where it had evidently lain down to rest, but soon lost track of it as these disappeared. He found his way into a marsh near by, and when about half way through was startled by the appearance of an animal or being with a distinct human face looking at him from a distance. As soon as he made a movement, however, the singular creature started off with great swiftness, and was soon lost to sight in the tall grass. Going to the place where he first saw the animal, for we will call it an animal at present, he distinctly traced in the mire the marks of human hands and feet, somewhat distorted, it is true, and with enormous claws, but sufficiently displayed to remove all doubts as to the matter. Filled with wonder, and not devoid of fear, the gentleman retraced his steps home.

Coming to this city on Thursday, he related his experience to Lieut. Kendrick, of the police force. Of course the story smacked so strongly of the improbable, that he regarded it as a hoax; but when he saw that his informant was evidently sincere in his narrative, he resolved to solve the mystery, if possible. Making all necessary preparations, he started, in company with the farmer, for the scene of the affair.

Arrived at the farmer's house they started forth. Going to the swamp, they searched for some time, but without discovering anything. When they were about to give up the search on the account of the near approach of night, they heard a rustling among the grass near them.

On turning, they beheld a sight which startled them. It was, without question, a human face, but resembled that of a brute so closely as to be almost unrecognizable as such. They made a movement as if to approach it when it darted off, leaping like a wildcat. As it receded they could obtain a good view of the creature's body, which was covered with hair, but at the time appeared altogether different from that of any animal in existence, the shape resembling most clearly that of a human being in the act of running or leaping on all fours. The trawl attempted pursuit, but the creature was soon lost in the dim shades of the woods. They returned wondering, and well they might at the strange sight they had seen.—Mil. Sentinel.

The mostest fun for the leastest money—Having a pretty girl to kiss you on both cheeks, and then say she thought she was kissing her cousin Tom?

A Singular Last Request.—The remains of the late Borlase Wingfield, wine and spirit merchant, East View, Sharples, were interred in the family vault at Christ Church, Harwood, on Monday night. A most singular request had been made by the deceased gentleman—that his horse, to which he was much attached, should follow him to the grave, afterward have a good feed of corn, and then be destroyed. This was strictly carried out. The horse, with the closed carriage of the deceased, followed in the rear of the funeral procession, and the next day, after being well fed with corn, it was taken to the side of the pit which had been dug in a field adjoining the residence the residence, and there "blown" by Roger Hampson, veterinary surgeon, Melson Square. This operation was performed in the following manner:

The jugular vein was opened, and an iron pipe having been inserted in the vein, it was blown until the animal died, which occurred in about half a minute. He had also requested that the whole of the domestic animals might be destroyed at the same time and buried with the horse. Two cats were accordingly drowned, and the remains of a faithful dog, which died about a month ago, were exhumed, and all buried in one grave. Mr. Wingfield has left a bequest to the whole of his servants. They are not to be destroyed.

Remarkable Instinct in a Horse.—Mr. Green Triplet, of this county, sold a horse to Dennis Burns, who was buying horses for the government early in the war. The same horse was taken by him to Cincinnati and sold to an officer in the U. S. army, and since that time nothing was heard of him until a few days ago, when he returned to the farm of Mr. Triplet, who had raised him from a colt. The horse was four years old when he left this county, and now returns aged eight years, having been on quite a tour since he left his home. Where he came from, or how he managed to find the place of his former birth, is involved in mystery. Mr. Triplet is an excellent hand with horses, and it is supposed that the horse was badly treated, and having evaded the vigilance of his master, has returned to the home of his choice. This is a remarkable illustration of the wonderful instinct possessed by the horse. This horse was absent four years in distant and strange lands, and how he managed to find his way back home is quite a problem for the naturalist. It shows that the horse is possessed of a wonderful instinct, and years do not wipe out his memory. We would like to own such a horse.—Flemingsburg Dem.

A veritable story is told of a bright little girl who attended Sunday school for the first time was asked:

"Who went into the lion's den?"

The little one appearing puzzled and not answering, the teacher commenced spelling to awake the child's recollection.—D-a-n.

"I can tell now," exclaimed the three-year-old, all smiles, "it was Dan Rice."

"Ain't it wicked to rob this chicken roost, Dick?"

"Dat's a great moral question, Gumbo; and we ain't time to argify it now; hand down another pullet."

"Mike, have you settled that affair with Lewis yet?" "Yes, he kicked me off the stoop last week, and now has stopped bothering me."

Does a man feel girlish when he makes a maiden speech?

The right man in the right place—a husband staying at home in the evening.

A girl that has lost her beau had as well hang up her fiddle.

A young lady, if a visitor knocks at her door, will sometimes send word "engaged," though she never had an offer in her life.

What character in scripture had neither father nor mother? Joshua, the son Nun.

We are never satisfied that a lady understands a kiss unless we have it from her own mouth.

Many a beautiful girl has a great number of 'chaps' on her hands, and some on her lips.

A confectioner advertises for a 'candid young lady.' He is probably looking for a sweetheart.

A lady who wears a neat little slipper is often loved by the foot.

THE CYNTHIANA NEWS

CYNTHIANA, KY.
THURSDAY, Sept. 5, 1867

A. J. MOREY, Editor.

An intelligent correspondent writing to the Georgetown Times, favors the building of a railroad from Cynthiana to Georgetown, and to connect with the Frankfort and Lexington railroad at Payne's Depot. If we are not mistaken, a route between these two points has already been surveyed, which passes by way of Broadwell, Leesburg and Oxford to Georgetown. The proposition is a good one, and would suit in every respect, provided it could be demonstrated to capitalists that an improvement of the kind would be a paying investment, and we will guarantee that it will be built as soon as the fact is substantiated. It would cost fifty thousand dollars per mile to lay the track, and one million would be expended before an investment could be made for rolling stock. It is an easy matter to make paper railroads, but it takes beef-eaters and brains to put one in operation. How much money will Scott county give for the road? How much will Georgetown subscribe?

We notice by a telegram to the New York Herald, that a proclamation of amnesty is about to be issued by the President of the United States, and it is said that all classes of ex-rebels will be pardoned, except those guilty of piracy, so-called. This amnesty will restore parties concerned to all civil rights except those taken away by act of Congress.

Last Saturday, McCoolle and Jones, met and fought out their long expected mill. It is said that many thousands of dollars were bet on the result of the fight. Jones was whipped in 34 rounds. Jones was severely punished, but took it with fearlessness equal to his courage. He is a brave man, but is in a bad streak of luck.

Tell them to "dry-up," Morey.—Geo. Times.

We have—and they have concluded to obey orders. If they don't they shall be reconstructed with new "coppers," then they can drink on the Sabbath with impunity. By the way, Mr. Bell, have you reconstructed your city on the Sunday question.

The "Gatherer" says that Mr. Wash Redmon, of Bourbon, has a chicken with ears extending far above its head. We are acquainted with people in this county, whose chickens have horns, and we know many people whose chickens have no ears, whatever. Our sucking hen has been turned out to grass. Such is our information from Oddville.

A correspondent wishes to know what has become of the wagon that Craddock rode through the Mexican war in, and in remuneration for this long and tiresome ride received money enough to buy the celebrated S. R. Warrington watch.—Gath.

The watch was lost—between sunrise and sunset, where or how, history gives no account. The wagon is now on exhibition at Burnum's Museum, labelled "Craddock's Ambulance."

In Town.—Our bachelor friend, Walker Thornton, Esq., was in town a few days ago, and says he cannot do without the Gatherer. He ordered three copies. If any one is effected with ennui, call on Uncle Walker and he will, by his wit, cause them to regain their buoyancy of spirits, not alcohol.—Gath.

The True American, a Black Republican newspaper, published at Newark, Licking county, Ohio, has come out against the Constitutional Amendment passed by the Legislature of that State, to confer suffrage upon the negroes. It is said that the present Governor of Ohio, Gen. Cox, is opposed to the amendment, with hundreds and thousands of republicans of like opinion. We are satisfied the amendment will be rejected by the people, and that its enactment will prove the death knell of Jacobinism in the Buckeye State.

Col. Gillmore, Post-master at Chicago, was recently drowned in the lake near that city. His body has been recovered. When drowned he was out pleasure on the lake in a small sailing vessel.

Commonwealth of Kentucky,
Office of Secretary of State,
August 28th, 1867.

We, Thomas E. Bramlette, Governor, John S. Van Winkle, Secretary of State, and Wm. T. Samuels, Auditor, certify that we have this day examined the returns from the several counties of this State of the election of Governor, and find that John L. Helm received 90,225 votes, Sidney M. Barnes received 33,939 votes, and Wm. B. Kinkaid received 13,167 votes.

Wherefore, John L. Helm, having received a majority of the votes given at the election on the 5th day of the present year and month, is duly elected Governor for the period fixed by the Constitution.

THOS. E. BRAMLETTE, Governor.
J. S. VAN WINKLE, Secretary of State.
W. T. SAMUELS, Auditor.
Attest: James R. Page, Assistant Secretary.

A New Bedford, Massachusetts man obtained a policy in a company insuring against accidents. Subsequently, he met with an accident while playing base ball, which disabled him for some weeks, but the company refused to pay his claim, as the accident did not occur while he was pursuing his usual business.

A Shocking punishment.—The New York correspondent of the Troy Times gives the following:

A shocking case of summary punishment which occurred in our neighboring city of Brooklyn, has just leaked out, though the most strenuous exertions were made to keep it from the public ear. It is well only to relate the following circumstances as there is reason to believe the attempted secrecy has given birth to many of the reports connected with the affair. About three weeks ago the residents of a section of Powers street were startled by the screams of woman, and immediately a servant girl was met coming from the house inquiring for the nearest physician. To inquiries made of her, she said her mistress had met with an accident. Next it was learned the injuries were inflicted by vitriol being spilled on the woman; but how, was not explained. It was also learned that a gentleman visiting the house at the time was also terribly burned from the same cause. It was then ascertained that the woman's eyes were entirely destroyed and her face horribly disfigured, and that the gentleman was so badly burned that he could not be removed from the house. But to all inquiries as to how the accident occurred, no satisfactory responses were given for a long while. An application for divorce, however, by the husband, threw some light on the subject, as people would know why a husband would wish to leave his wife in the condition she was. It was then learned that the vitriol had descended through the ceiling, where it was found that several holes had recently been made. How the vitriol came into the room, how it was spilled, or why it was spilled, are questions which no one seems competent or willing to answer. But, as remarked above, report answers them freely, and the general opinion is that the husband preferred not to shoot his wife's gentleman visitor.

The Strongest Man in the World.—A native of Australia, Mr. J. E. Evans, recently gave an exhibition of remarkable strength at the Sea Hotel, Chesterfield, England, to establish his claim as the strongest man in the world. He held a fifty-six pound weight in various positions, at arm's length, and increased the number until he raised four of them above his head, holding them at arm's length, and at the same time standing upon four tumblers. He also held them on the top of a glass, and allowed a glass of water to be placed on the top of the weights. He laid flat on the floor and let a 56 pound weight fall a distance of about a yard on his bare chest; and the weight rebounded as though it had come in contact with a piece of India rubber. A piece of stone, four inches thick, was next placed on his chest, and Mr. Hinch, a blacksmith, smashed it with two blows into fragments. Mr. Hinch and Mr. Turner then cut a piece of two inch iron in two across his chest with the hammer and chisel. The feat concluded by his lying flat upon the floor, allowing Mr. Hinch to hit him, with all his strength, with a 16 pound sledge hammer. The blow was met by the Professor, and the hammer rebounded without leaving a scratch upon the body.

Clerk of the House.—W. T. Samuels, the present popular and efficient Auditor of the State, is a candidate for the office of Clerk of the next House of Representatives. His qualifications for that position and his clerical capacity generally are universally acknowledged. His true and zealous Democracy is unsurpassed. As a member of the State Democratic Central Committee, his services have been untiring and effective. We believe he has no opposition as yet, and he richly deserves the compliment of a unanimous election.—Frank. Yeo.

Crittenden county, considering its antecedents, did very well in the late election. Although Barnes carried the county over Helm by 78 majority, the Democracy elected the Representative to the Legislature, John W. Blue, the County Attorney, S. Hodge, and the county clerk, R. W. Wilson, by majorities ranging a little above 40. The newspapers which have classed Mr. Blue as a radical should apologize to him, as we do. He was elected as a Conservative Democrat over a radical competitor, and, as we are informed, will act fully with the Democratic party. We congratulate him upon his election.—Frank. Yeo.

It has lately leaked out through the columns of the New York Tribune, that a majority of the military court who tried Mrs. Surratt, recommended to the President that her sentence should be commuted to imprisonment, and that the recommendation was signed by Gen. Hunter, the President of the commission. It seems that this part of the proceedings of that court, was carefully suppressed; and that it was not permitted to reach the President.

Gov. HELM.—We are rejoiced to learn that Gov. Helm is by no means so seriously ill as has been represented, and that he will probably be able to go to Frankfort in a few days. His protracted and fatiguing canvass over the State during the extremely hot weather, wearied and prostrated him for a while, but we doubt not that his vigorous constitution will bear him up. A letter received yesterday from Elizabethtown, represents him as being decidedly better.—Lon. Cou.

A negro calling himself Nick Williams, hailing from Oberlin, Ohio, is making speeches to large crowds of negroes and white persons in the vicinity of Malboro, South Carolina. He opposes reconstruction, and says the Southerner has as much right still to claim the negro as his slave as he has to claim a right to his land. He also says the Yankee treats the negro at the North worse than they are treated here, and proposes to bring the negro population of the North to occupy the ten conquered States, and to make them a great negro nation. This perniciously false and untrue statement, which holds control over his followers, almost supreme, and some of the negroes have become insane from his threats of punishment.

The Cincinnati Gazette calls the failure of the jury to convict Surratt a Democratic victory. By the same reasoning, then, we suppose the conviction and hanging of Mrs. Surratt was a radical victory.

A huzlar, while engaged in robbing a house, on hearing a slight noise, exclaimed: "Hang it if they catch me with spoons, I shall be sent to Congress."

Special Notice
A CARD TO INVALIDS.
A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of nervous weakness, early decay, diseases of the urinary and seminal organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by mental and vicious habits. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Promptly by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine, in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge. Address, JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

They are selling at Dabney's drug store the Eugenia Hair Restorer in many month sized bottles and the very best preparation in the world at only 75 cents per bottle. Try it.

An Autumn Suggestion.
Now, as heavy logs arise and searching winds commence to blow; now, as the human mind, exhausted like inanimate nature by the heat of summer, begins to wilt and droop; now, ere the inclement winter makes its trying onset; now is the time for a preparatory course of the best acclimating medicine in existence.

HOTTESTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.
Fever and Ague is rampant in all parts of the country. Quinine, the physicians admit, will not quell the plague of the disease which at present pervades the entire West. It is well that it is so, for the remedy is inefficient in intermittent fevers.

HOTTESTER'S BITTERS
is irresistible. It would be safe to make a contract under heavy penalties, that any given Fever and Ague District should be exempted from the disorder for any particular time, provided the inhabitants would take the Bitters according to the directions, during the term of the contract. There has never been an instance in which this sterling invigorant and anti-febrile medicine has failed to ward off the complaint, when taken daily as a protection against malaria. Hundreds of physicians have abandoned all the official specifics and now prescribe this harmless vegetable tonic, and nothing else, as a preventive and cure to all the forms of chills and fevers. Vigor is the thing most useful in these cases, as well as in dyspepsia and in nervous affections, and are the safest, surest and most wholesome strengthening preparation that human skill has yet concocted. ## POLAND'S MAGIC BILIOUS POWDERS!!!

THIS PREPARATION IS THE DISCOVERY of the Rev. J. W. Poland, formerly pastor of the Baptist Church in Goffstown, N. H., and a man deeply beloved by that denomination throughout New England. He was obliged to leave his pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his Magic Powders are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is the great Liver and Biliary remedy, which completely throws in the shade all other discoveries in medicine and it affords him much gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Biliary Powders are a positive cure for Liver Complaint, in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all Biliary Derangements. Excellent for headache, constipation, pimples, blotches, a sallow skin, drowsiness, dizziness, heartburn, palpitation and a most wonderful cure and preventive for Fever and Ague. (We advise all who are troubled with this fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand for immediate use.) Here are a few important particulars:

Some of them near the dwelling, and South Licking which runs along one side of it. ## LOCAL MATTERS.

RAILROAD TIME-TABLE.
Trains going North arrive
Trains going South arrive
Trains going North depart
Trains going South depart

McChesny & Williams are issuing a daily, during the Bourbon Fair. More enterprise.

John Rutherford, the news-boy of Cynthiana, will have papers for sale at the drug-store of Dr. Otwell.

Considerable wheat is being shipped from Boyd's Station. It seems that our friend, Lee Boyd, attends to business, and his business is growing.

Our friend Parish, formerly of the Mt. Sterling Sentinel, is about to establish the Winchester Democrat, at Winchester, Clark county, Ky. We wish him luck.

Mr. Charles Reickel will move his jewelry establishment from Main to Pike street, in the "Webster Block," next door to the Magnolia Saloon, this week. Call and see him.

Our new bank building begins to loom up, and presents an appearance much more extensive than we anticipated. We hope to see the stone work finished very soon.

An extra train of cars will leave Cynthiana for Paris every morning during the Fair in Bourbon, immediately after the arrival of the cars from Lexington. It will return at 6 o'clock, P. M.

Gooley's Lady's Book for September is an excellent specimen of that Magazine. It is finely embellished and filled with excellent reading matter.

Jno. Carter's horse beat H. C. Magee's horse last Friday, over the Lexington race course. Dr. Snedeker's horse beat Lightning in a trotting match on the same day and at the same place. It is said that Lightning was not in fix.

The Livery and Sale Stable of Hill and Forman, was knocked off to Dan McShane for $3,915. The stock sold high. We understand that Mr. Hill continues the owner of the stable yet, for some cause or other.

Two or three mules were killed on Monday morning on the railroad below Cynthiana. They would not get off the track.

The "Bourbon Democrat," has been received at this office. It has a clean face, and is edited with ability, spiced with wit and humor, which makes it readable and agreeable. S. P. Cunningham and B. W. Hallack are its editors. We wish them success.

The best lot of mules offered and sold in Paris last Monday, brought only 132 dollars per head. One lot of fine yearling steers sold for 24 dollars and 75 cents per head, and six head of Durham heifers brought 42 dollars and 35 cents per head.

Walnut street is undergoing an improvement. On both sides brick is being laid to make good walks. Pleasant street seems to go untouched. As soon as cold weather sets in, the cry will be, that the ground has too much frost in it.

A colored man, named Willis Reneker, is charged with stealing one hundred dollars, from another of his race, named Henry Reneker. We understand that Willis left the country Tuesday morning on the train going North.

Last Monday, we heard a gentleman say that the Paris correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, printed a lie, when he said that the people of that place menaced by look or act, or by any exhibition of pistols, while the colored people were passing through the streets of Paris last week on the day of their celebration. The liar ought to be known. Who was he? The gentleman who denied the assertion, is a Union man, and we believe was a federal soldier.

The City Council have put an iron railing around the court-house square, that the people may have a place to listen their horses. The man, hereafter, whose horse is found on the side-walks, will be compelled to pay a fine. Let the marshal's enforce the law in that respect.

Our old friend of the "faithful," Jno Kellar, arrived in Cynthiana last week with his family, from Missouri. He is looking hearty. He said that he passed through Cincinnati on his way home, and that the people in that fine city, were envious and jealous of the growing and prosperous city of Cynthiana. And well they may be for there is no city in Kentucky, that is growing so fast. However, we have room for a few more enterprising families.

On Saturday, the 14th inst, at 8 o'clock, a m, the knights, who are expected to participate in the Tournament, will leave the court-house, in costume, preceded by a band of music, and march to the Fair Grounds. We hope that our friends from Bourbon and Harrison, will be pleased with the affair, and that nothing may be said or done, which will disturb the social enjoyment that is anticipated.

On Wednesday and Friday nights, the 11th and 13th, the ladies of Cynthiana, will give at the court-house, in this city, tableau entertainments. Last Friday a rehearsal was given at Mr. T. Dills, which was a grand affair. The Amateur Theatricals, of Paris have volunteered to play "Paddy Mile's Boy" on both nights. The fund received by the ladies will be appropriated to the Monumental Society.

A man and woman, named Wilson, who were said to be married, passing through this county several months since, found a vacant house on the farm of a citizen who lives in the southern portion of this county, took possession and went into the house-keeping business. The woman was hale, hearty and quite good looking, but gave herself up to the embrace of whisky and a colored man, with a loss of peace in her household, and a good name in the neighborhood. Their neighbors determined that they should not remain, and they left some two weeks ago. When crossing the Ohio River, near New Albany, as we have been informed, the husband attempted to throw his wife into the river, and as she was strong and much more resolute than the husband, dragged him overboard with her, and they both went down together, never to rise again. Mr. Wilson was said to be an industrious, honest man, but was not as well matched as he should have been. They have found a lasting peace in a watery grave.

Carpenter & Bros., sold their lot on Main street, just below Megibben's ware house to Mr. James Bruce, of Colemansville, for one thousand and fifty dollars, cash. Mr. Bruce will erect a double tenement house on his lot immediately.

On last Friday evening, some evil disposed person, who deserves a term in the penitentiary, cut the throat of a horse, belonging to Wm. Thompson of this city.

We understand that three beef cattle, belonging to Mrs. Joel Frazer, were killed by the locomotive on last Monday.

We take pleasure in noticing two new pieces of music from the house of D. P. Faulds, No 70 Main street, Louisville. "Poking the Fire," song with chorus, by J. W. Long, and "Sweet Alice," music and words by J. W. Bradley.

Personal.—It was a source of gratification to us to meet at Cynthiana, on Monday, our friend, Charles T. Daniel, who has returned to Kentucky, and is now practicing law in Harrison and the adjoining counties. He is eminently worthy the patronage of all. From a long personal acquaintance with him, we are warranted in expressing the conviction that he will attend to all business promptly and give entire satisfaction. He is a most promising young man and we predict for him a brilliant future.—Gatherer.

BANKRUPTCY.

Public notice is given, that I am prepared with the bankrupt law of the United States, and the bank rules of procedure in bankruptcy, as promulgated by the Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, and will undertake the conducting of cases in bankruptcy through the United States District and Circuit Courts of Kentucky.

I have engaged the assistance of W. S. Haviland, who has had much experience in public business as claim agent, to aid in the preparation of petitions in Bankruptcy, taking proof, &c., but my personal attention will be given to each case before the courts.

Any persons wishing to avail themselves of the benefit of the act of Congress establishing a uniform system of Bankruptcy throughout the United States, approved 2nd of March, 1867, and desire my management of their application, will call at my office in Cynthiana, West of the Court house. Mr. Haviland will be found at his business room in the Post office.
